

The holidays are upon us, and we sincerely hope the season has been a good one for all of you.

Remember, if you have a few last minute orders, we can still take orders with retouch through Monday, December 17th, and non-retouch orders through Tuesday, December 18th, and get them back to you in time for holiday gift-giving.

Here's our year-end holiday schedule -

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Through December 21st | Open regular hours |
| December 24 - 26 | Closed for the holiday & annual maintenance |
| December 27 - 28 | Open regular hours |
| December 31 - January 2 | Closed for the holiday & annual maintenance |

We will reopen on our regular schedule on January 3rd, 2019

Just a reminder:

- We have no control over the shippers themselves. UPS does not guarantee delivery dates for ground packages picked up or scheduled for delivery through December 24th.
- Lenzart will use Ground UPS unless you specify UPS Air shipping, at studio expense.
- Please don't think you need to stockpile your non-Christmas orders. The dates we've listed are for products needed in time for Christmas gift-giving. Keep sending in your "regular" orders right on through the holidays, we'll keep producing and shipping as time allows.
